Happy August!

Please take some time this month to visit our new website, launching today, August 1st! We are very proud of how it looks and represents our wonderful community. We are asking our members to edit their own listings and give feedback, and now we are asking our community members to send feedback, too. We are working on optimizing the site and also making sure that all information on it is as accurate as possible. We are appreciative of anything you have to add.

As some of you know, the Alaska Realtor's Board will be having their yearly convention in our very own Cooper Landing this year! I hope that many of you have received calls from guests looking for accommodations, rafting or fishing adventures. The dates are September 16-20th at Princess Wilderness Lodge. We initially had planned on holding the regatta this year around this same time, however, due to schedule conflicts and a general lack of interest, we will look into reinstating the regatta next summer. Instead of the Regatta, we will be sponsoring a get together this fall; nothing to be purchased, sold or donated, just good fun and good company with your neighbors and friends. We will have a table set up to address any questions our members have for us regarding membership renewal and advertising for the upcoming year. We are tentatively looking at the last two Saturdays of the month; once we get it narrowed down, we will let you all know!

Hope everyone is doing well and enjoying the Summer
Stephanie Lesmeister, President

Introduction to Ashtanga Yoga: Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, through September. 8-10 am (Arrive any-time between 8-9 am to start your practice.) All ages and levels welcome! No flexibility or prior yoga experience required. Bring your own mat or borrow one provided by the Cooper Landing Community School. $10 drop-in or $70 punch card (10 practice sessions).

Ashtanga Yoga - 2 Day Workshop: Thursday, August 10 (8-10am) & Friday, August 11 (8-11am) at the Cooper Landing Community Hall. Led by Faiza Moore from Ashtanga Yoga Fairbanks (www.ashtangayogafairbanks.com) Includes 2 days of traditional mysore style classes followed by "Chat and Chai" on Friday. All are welcome! $15 (drop in), $25 (2-day workshop). A mysore style class is the traditional way to learn Ashtanga. The student works at their own pace with a teacher. This is ideal for everyone from brand new beginners to dedicated students. At first the student's practice will be shorter as they are taught the poses one-to-one by the teacher. As students gradually learn more poses, their practice takes longer. Students can arrive at any time during the session, as long as they allow enough time to finish their practice and take rest. Mysore style classes are named after the city of Mysore in India. This is where Shri K. Pattabhi Jois lived and taught until 2009. Today his grandson (R. Sharath Jois) and daughter (Saraswathi Jois) continue to teach at the KPJAYI. ABOUT FAIZA Faiza started her daily ashtanga practice in 2004. She made her first trip to Mysore in 2014. Since then Faiza has made yearly trips to study at the KPJAYI. In 2016 Faiza received authorization to teach from her teacher, R. Sharath Jois.

Cooper Landing Community School Update Continued..

Gather Hear Alaska: Sunday, August 20, 5pm, Cooper Landing School

FREE ADMISSION (Donations appreciated). Please visit: www.facebook.com/GatherHearAlaska

Pianist Miki Sawada tours with a piano in a van in her Gather Hear Alaska tour, accompanied by a documentary filmmaker. Together they explore the idea of the piano as a gathering place - a rare place for people to pause their lives and open their ears, increase awareness, and listen deeply. This tour is a social experiment: Can classical music touch us more personally and powerfully when taken out of the concert hall and placed in local community hubs? Can we grow to be more empathetic to each other through this shared occasion of focused listening? Miki will perform standards ranging from Bach to Gershwin, pieces lovingly written for her by close friends, and a work by Homer-native Conrad Winslow. She will thread together the program through commentary and questions, and also will lead the audience in group participation pieces. This program is for everyone, whether you're knowledgeable about classical music or you've never encountered it live.

Cooper Landing Historical Society Museum

Cooper Landing, Alaska

CLHS is honoring the Sexy Senior Dumpster Cleaners for their twenty years of service to Cooper Landing by a museum display featuring photos and memorabilia during the month of August.

The museum will be open through Labor Day and after that by appointment only by calling Mona at 598-1042. Cooper Landing Historical Society's annual meeting will be October 7 at the museum. More on that in Sept.

New President on Board for CLSCCI

Ken Green, newly elected president of the Cooper Landing Senior Citizen Corp. Inc, CLSCCI, board, chairs his first meeting Tuesday, Aug. 1 at 1:30 in Helen Gwin Commons, Eagles View. Other Board members are Shirley Wilmoth: Vice-President, Alma Fowler: Treasurer, Alison Rein: Secretary, Ed Holsten, Glen Maupin, and Gary Galbraith. Former President Ronald Sloan quietly retired after eight years of hard labor with admiration and appreciation expressed by many. CLSCCI is a multi-million dollar enterprise with responsibility for 12 housing units for seniors 55 and over, as well as for two buses and a transportation program that includes transporting people to Soldotna and Kenai for appointments and shopping, rides to local events, and Sexy Senior Dumpster Cleaners Monday commutes to transfer sites in Cooper Landing and Crown Point. Board meetings are open to the public. CLSCCI members are urged to attend.

PDC Inc. Engineers to appear at CLSCCI August Meeting

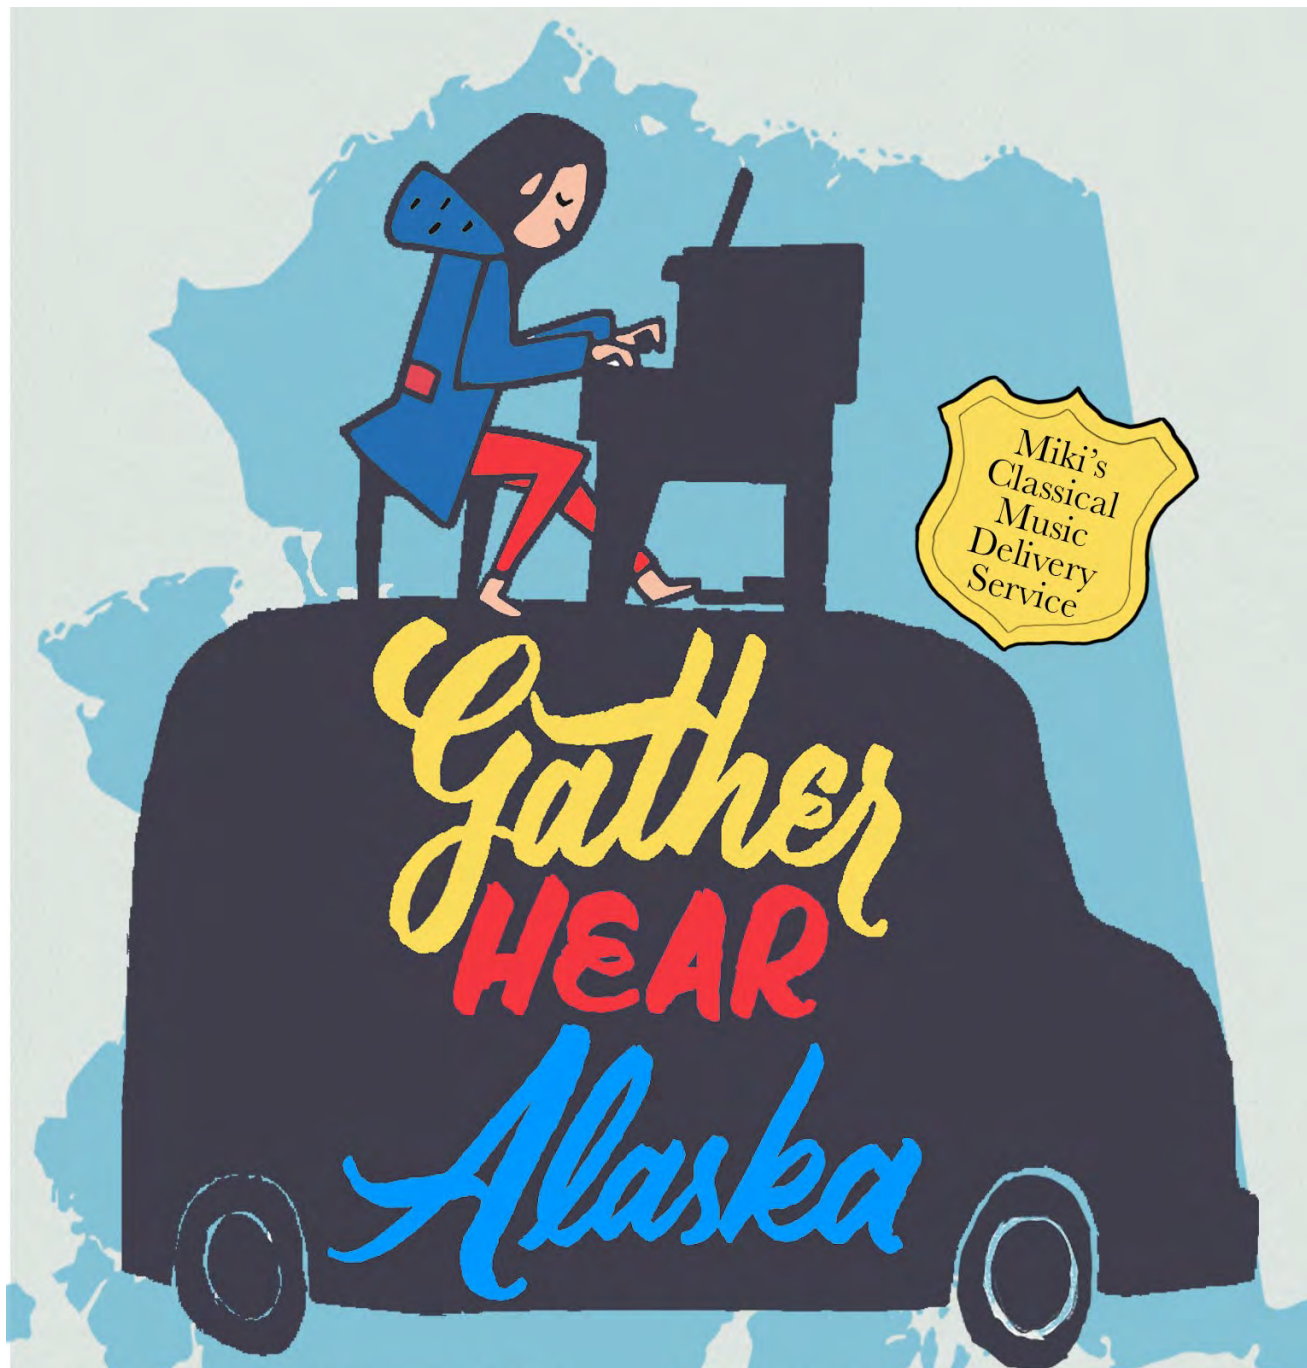

Becky Cronkhite with PDC Inc. Engineers working with the Kenai Peninsula Borough will be at the August 8 CLSCCI quarterly general membership meeting to present information about the Kenai Peninsula Borough's Comprehensive Plan update.

The Aug. 8 meeting begins at 11:30 with a potluck lunch in Helen Gwin Commons. After a short business meeting, Jean "Nana" Sether will present HATS! A style show with live models and dialogue with all imaginable puns. (Of course Mayme will model the Coffee Pot; she's so perky!) This meeting is also open to all interested and CLSCCI members are encouraged to attend. Three door prizes will be given to CLSCCI members.

Sexy Senior Dumpster Cleaners Appreciation Lunch

The Sexy Senior Dumpster Cleaners are celebrating 20 years of community service with an August 17 luncheon and program at Kenai Princess Wilderness Lodge. We could have been Trash Troops or Garbage Grannies, but Helen Gwin came up with the Sexy Senior label and it stuck! I was one of those lacking foresight regarding the name, until we went to Juneau to request grant funds to build the community hall kitchen and bathrooms addition. I like to think we were the toast of the town. We were on radio and TV and our legislators got to know the "Sexy Seniors" as we presented the need for indoor plumbing and all. And we got the money. Mayme, with help from the Brorsons, has a slide show of highlights from 1997 on as part of the program. We are taking names to reserve places for the lunch and program. Email me (Mona) at painter@arctic.net or call Mayme at 598-1017.

Derby Etiquette & Safety

Derby days are Seward's busiest fishing time of the year. Thousands of anglers descend on Resurrection Bay — but the bay can only accommodate so many anglers and boats at one time! It's big enough for everybody, as long as we all adhere to these basic rules of the water when boating in close proximity to others:

- Be courteous with fellow boaters, and respect rights of way. You may even want to brush up on maritime practices before heading out.
- Keep watch at all times, looking and listening for any danger — as per U.S. Coast Guard regulations.
- Always boat with a buddy, and take turns at the helm or behind the wheel. There's also the option of setting anchor to mooch in the passing schools of fish.
- Keep your distance from other boats. One of the most common risks for collisions & accidents is multiple boats converging on hot fishing spots or start crowding schools of fish. If you can pitch something to a neighboring vessel, you're too close.

Derby Ticket Locations

Derby Booth
 The Fish House
 Aurora Charters
 J Dock Seafood
 J Dock Charters
 Miller's Landing
 Bay Barge Company

- Maintain safe & respectful speeds at all times. We know you may need to "let 'er rip" in order to reach a distant fishing site in good time, but take it easy when leaving and entering the harbor or operating along the shore and near other vessels. If others are fishing nearby, cut the engine back and try to be silent so as to preserve schools of fish.
- Let others know where you plan to fish & when you expect to return. It could prove difficult to track someone down in the open water or along the coast outside the bay. A little trip planning in advance can do a lot of good in the event of an incident.
- Share the fun! Our goal is for everyone to have the fun, world-class fishing experience for which Resurrection Bay is known.
